

THE STEP UP TO CHIEF INSPECTOR......

- Operationally competent and credible to lead and manage at silver commander level:
 - identifying and managing operational threat, harm and risk
 - ensuring effective management of the investigation of crime

People skills:

- Can translate complex issues into clear and concise messages for staff
- Provides care and support at times of uncertainty
- Provides clarity and confidence through change
- Encourages own and others' personal and professional development
- Acts as a role model, particularly in relation to the Code of Ethics
- Encourages, supports and values working as a team
- Contributes to ensuring a diverse and representative workforce.

Innovation and Transformation:

- Contributes to the vision for future areas of responsibility that meets organisational needs and realises opportunities
- Encourages cultural change and different ways of working
- Explores and embraces new opportunities to deliver policing, including the best use of technology
- Deliver business as usual activities through periods of change

Problem Solving:

- Able to work with partners and know when to retain control and when to pass to others
- Able to push the boundaries and not be constrained by current thinking

Performance

- Evidence of contributing to sustained performance improvements

Prioritisation:

- Uses information and professional judgement to predict future demand

- Understands about public value and what adds value
- Prepared to take appropriate risks
- Able to manage upwards